After an endless winter, the South Bank is alive with possibilities this summer. The Southbank Centre's summer pop-ups are set to return on Friday 29 April with a number of tried and trusted favourites alongside some tantalisingly tasty new concepts. This unbeatable food and drink offering in the heart of London provides the perfect spot to hang out and enjoy long, lingering summer days alongside the river.

Kick off the Bank Holiday weekend with al fresco dining and drinks overlooking the London skyline at a selection of pop-ups; quench your thirst with fresh juice from Elephant Juice, or kick back and enjoy a cold drink from The Hop Locker. Hot dog specialists Oh My Dog! are back under the bridge with their hand-made franks and freshly baked buns, alongside Truffle dishing out London's most indulgent burgers.

New concept Sundowner will be popping up along the Queen's Walk, pouring a variety of homemade drinks including Mojito Slushies, Frozen Pimms, and Elderflower Spritz. Relax and enjoy drinks from a small, foliage-filled seating area while appreciating sunsets over the river; expect good vibes and great drinks.

The infamous Jimmy's BBQ Club returns, bringing the ultimate 6-course feast cooked over fire, whilst on-hand chefs share their top tips for BBQing. Sit back and enjoy a delicious feast from this outdoor cabana overlooking the Thames. Prefer a more casual dining opportunity? The BBQ Club also boasts two bars, a rooftop terrace and a riverside boardwalk, all with riverside views and a sensational street food menu.

In May, for the first time, Dookies Grill will join the pop-up line-up, serving a menu jam-packed with home-cooked comfort food, drawing inspiration from the duo's Caribbean roots. Homemade jerk sauces complement authentic Caribbean dishes exploding with flavour, setting tastebuds alight all summer long.

The Southbank Centre's much loved, weekly street food market also adds to its permanent roster with casual Lebanese-Mediterranean favourites Levant Kitchen, authentic Japanese rice bowls from Pochi, and Vietnamese fusion dishes from My Kids Are Hungry. With over 30 traders plating up vibrant flavours from across the globe. From Korean BBQ and Pad Thai, to cannoli and crêpes, there's something to tickle all taste buds this summer.

NOTES TO EDITORS

About the Southbank Centre

The Southbank Centre is the UK's largest arts centre occupying a prominent riverside location that sits in the midst of London's most vibrant cultural quarter on the South Bank of the Thames. We exist to present great cultural experiences that bring people together and we achieve this by providing the space for artists to create and present their best work and by creating a place where as many people as possible can come together to experience bold, unusual and eye-opening work. We want to take people out of the everyday, every day. The site has an extraordinary creative and architectural history stretching back to the 1951 Festival of Britain. The Southbank Centre is made up of the Royal Festival Hall, Queen Elizabeth Hall, Purcell Room and Hayward Gallery as well as being home to the National Poetry Library and the Arts Council Collection. It is also home to six Resident Orchestras (Aurora Orchestra, Chineke! Orchestra, London Philharmonic Orchestra, London Sinfonietta, Orchestra of the Age of Enlightenment and Philharmonia Orchestra).
