

Going to see Super Hot Hot Dog at the Southbank Centre

Super Hot Hot Dog is a new performance by Corali Dance Company

Super Hot Hot Dog will be at the Southbank Centre as part of Imagine Children's Festival

2023

Imagine Children's Festival has music, dance, theatre and more

The Southbank Centre is a big arts centre in London on the river Thames

There will be lots going on at the Southbank Centre during Imagine Children's Festival

Super Hot Hot Dog will be in the Blue Room, Level 1, Royal Festival Hall

You can enter through the Southbank Centre Square Doors to Level 1
There is an information desk on Level 2 if you need help finding it

The Blue Room is a studio theatre and the seats will be on 3 sides of the stage

Super Hot Hot Dog is performed by 5 dancers

DJ, Graham, Jackie, Bethan and Pat
When you have taken your seat two dancers from Corali will introduce Super Hot Hot Dog

The two dancers are Pat and

DJ

They will show you some movements from the show
Super Hot Hot Dog is set at the seaside

In the performance there are theatre lights and music

The dancers use a microphone

If you want to leave the studio you can step outside whenever you need and come back in at any time

The show is in two parts

Each section of the show is 20 minutes

In each section there will be bits you can join in, which we will invite you to join during the show

Between the two parts there will be a break of 15 minutes.

In the break the performers will ask if you want to draw a fish!

We will provide pens and paper and you can use your fish drawing in the 2nd part When the show is over you can stay in the Blue Room to meet the performers

We look forward to seeing you there!
