

Adventures in MOOMINLAND

What is Adventures in Moominland?

Adventures in Moominland is a 50-minute interactive guided tour through the life, works and world of Tove Jansson.

Who will like it?

Although we recommend ages 7+, everyone – younger or older – are welcome. But no buggies please!

What about school groups?

We have special times/prices for school groups during term times.

What times are the tours?

10.30am, 10.45am & 11am
11.15am, 11.30am & 11.45am
12pm, 12.15pm & 12.30pm

How many students are allowed into a tour?

We can have the maximum of 15 students, who must be accompanied by one tutor per tour

What if I want to bring more students?

You can book as many tours – subject to availability – for as many students you wish to bring.

Can I book my group into consecutive tours?

Yes, subject to availability. For example if you want to bring 30 students to Adventures in Moominland you can book 15 students at 10.30am and the other 15 at 10.45am.

And what does that cost?

£72 for one tour – Maximum 15 students
plus one tutor

£144 for two tours – Maximum 30 students
plus one tutor per tour

£180 for three tours – Maximum 45 students
plus one tutor per tour

Is there plenty to do within Royal Festival Hall while a group is waiting to start or after a tour?

Yes, there are always plenty of interesting exhibitions and installations taking place within the building.

Can the group have their lunch within the hall?

Yes. If you bring packed lunches with you, you are welcome to eat them anywhere onsite. We also have numerous cafes and restaurants around the site where you can buy food and drinks.

How do I make a booking?

You can either email groups@southbankcentre.co.uk or phone 0207 960 4225 to make a booking.

How do I pay for the tour?

Once reserved, you can either pay by card, cheque or an invoice can be issued so payment can be raised through your Finance Department.

What is there available to further my students' experience before or after the visit?

Download our Teacher Resource Pack for activities and ideas to further your students' learning.
