

SOUTHBANK CENTRE

TOURING

Planet of the Apes

WITH LIVE ORCHESTRA

A live presentation of Planet of the Apes
(1968) in association with 20th Century
Fox and Southbank Centre

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

Southbank Centre's live presentation of Franklin J Schaffner's Planet of the Apes.

Widely considered a sci-fi classic, Franklin J Schaffner's Planet of the Apes is brought vividly to the concert stage with live orchestral accompaniment of Jerry Goldsmith's Oscar®-nominated score.

Planet of the Apes, a film whose social subtexts seem as relevant now as ever, stars Charlton Heston as an astronaut who crash-lands on an unknown planet where apes rule and humans are enslaved. Roddy McDowall and Kim Hunter co-star as the hyper-intelligent apes, whose simian appearance is brought to life by the Oscar®-winning make-up artist John Chambers.

Following the successful presentation at Southbank Centre's Royal Festival Hall in August 2015, this production is now available for presentation elsewhere.

Recommended rating

Parental Guidance

Running time

109 minutes

Requirements

Conductor, symphony orchestra with extensive percussion, full cinema set-up with perforated screen

Contact details

Beatrice Hendry

Touring and Commissions Manager
Southbank Centre
Belvedere Road, London SE1 8XX

t +44 (0)20 7921 0851

e beatrice.hendry@southbankcentre.co.uk

w southbankcentre.co.uk/about-us/touring

